The Z Room is an open plan blank canvass of 6,350 sqft which is housed in the main building of The Old Truman Brewery. The Z Room benefits from an original 1970s designed 6 metre high cassette ceiling, white washed walls and concrete flooring which can be dressed up or down as required. For larger events, the Z Room can also be hired together with The Overhang to the rear of the space. The Z Room has played host to numerous parties, award ceremonies and public exhibitions.

The Old Truman Brewery is an historic 11 acre site on Brick Lane, London E1, housing a variety of unique spaces for hire, ranging from 2,000 sqft to 100,000 sqft.

The Old Truman Brewery has venues on its roster which have been used for the entire spectrum of events - film shoots, fashion shows, award ceremonies, exhibitions, trade shows, conferences, corporate parties, product launches and sample sales to mention a few.

High profile events have been hosted at The Old Truman Brewery by the likes of Bloomberg, LWT, Nike, Diesel, Samsung, Hewlett Packard, Topshop, Hermes, The Prince's Trust and English Heritage.

We have nine years' experience in hiring event spaces and are confident that we are flexible enough to accommodate your needs, including the availability of ample parking for production vehicles.
