

The Truman Brewery

Creative Branding at The Truman Brewery

If you have the creative vision, we have the space

Your ideas, our space

Having earned the label of East London's "cultural hub", the Truman Brewery sits on 11 acres, boasting a carefully curated mix of work and event spaces, as well as retail, hospitality, and art.

With the guarantee of high footfall, the site is home to multiple outdoor locations primed to accommodate installations and experimental events of any size to suit your brand.

Directors Wall

Prime Creative Spot

Situated in a prime location on Dray Walk and neighbouring the iconic Rough Trade East, this ground-level site is ideal for music-related content, as well as a variety of creative projects and brand activations.

For installations at this site, a ladder or scaffold tower will be required to safely reach the mural area. The surface must also be prepped with vinyl before painting.

Brick Lane (1001)

High-Traffic Canvas

Perfectly positioned under the bridge by Café 1001, huge footfall can be expected for this wall space due to its location directly on bustling Brick Lane. Popular as a complementary addition to other onsite brand activity, or as a standalone artwork.

For installations at this site, a ladder or scaffold tower will be required to safely reach the mural area. The surface must also be prepped with vinyl before painting.
